Today I was thinking about the advice we give. Specifically, I was mulling over that little gem of advice we offer – unsolicited advice. It is a little funny how when we see people struggling with things that come to us quite easily, we are quick to give them a few ‘pointers’. But here’s the thing...if I am struggling to lose weight and you have always been relatively fit and genuinely enjoy working out and eating healthy, you are NOT going to understand my struggle. If you are a type A personality that is structured and organized and that is how you function best, you are NOT going to understand my haphazard ways and how I have tried time and time again to be more ordered but it is a lot of work and it’s hard to maintain. And don’t even get me started on relationship advice because none of us, regardless of our past, understands the trails and struggles of two completely different people. Simply put, what works for me does not always work for someone else. And the reason is quite simple – they aren’t me!

On a broader scheme, we would do well to understand that we all have different life experiences and different ways of understanding that is going on around us. While we all might agree with that message, problem arise when two people, with very different life experiences, approach the same issue or topic. I carry over 5 ½ decades of life experience with me and all of those experiences inform the choices I make in the present day. Having come from a close knit and supportive family means I will see life differently than someone with parents that are not dependable or siblings that aren’t trustworthy. And chances are, we will butt heads on the ‘right’ way to do things.

But here is the rub – neither of us is really wrong, nor are we completely right. It is entirely possible (and quite likely) that we are both right and wrong. And as soon as we begin to understand that (and the reasons people might interpret things differently) the better our relationship will be. As we struggle to understand one another in the church, in the nation, and in the world, let me offer some of that unsolicited advice. Maybe we need to stop the knee-jerk response of arguing our point and instead try to understand. Try to see another person’s perspective and value their life experiences. It doesn’t mean you were wrong, just that the information you use to make your decisions is a little different than the information they have. When we get to a place where we value relationships more than being right, and loving one another more than winning the fight, we will be one step closer to being the people God has created us to be.

It isn't easy, but great things usually aren't. The path of discipleship is a rough one at times. Paul wrote letter after letter to churches that were struggling to live out the gospel message. But when we create these communities built on a foundation of mutual love and respect, and cherish the gifts of grace and mercy, we understand how precious it is to be a part of the body of Christ.

Treasurer's Nook

What a blessing it has been to have the opportunity to raise funds by parking cars for the EAA event. This event takes a lot of help from many members and it makes a very large difference to our financial health. This event added $21,827 to our cashflow leaving us with a year-to-date positive cashflow of $14,572 rather than a negative cashflow of (-$7,255) had we not participated in this event. Thank you to Jeff and Mary Ann Bartels for letting us do this and for everyone that came out to help run the event. It is a lot of effort and requires the help of many people.

Our sidewalk invoice is due by Nov. 1 which totals $12,590.94. As of July 31, we have $6,690 available leaving us $5,940.94 to raise.

As we move closer to the fall season, enjoy the beauty of the changing colors and the cooler temperatures.

Thank you to those of you who bright in crackers or cookies during August. In September we are asking for Pasta Sauce and Diced Tomatoes. If you see these on sale, pick up some extra jars or cans for the food pantry. These are items that we don't have coming in our government commodities and they are great items that are well received.

During July we served 82 families. 6 families were new to our pantry. We served 155 adults and 112 children. We continue to see an ever-growing need in our community. We appreciate everyone who continues to support our pantry. In the community we continue to receive food from Red's Piggly Wiggly and Jay Koepke at Festival Foods. We would like to thank them for their ongoing support.

Thank you to our dedicated volunteers, Henry Caron, Gail Hable, Sherry Pepler, Snay Folske, Ray Hitz, Deb Kraemer, Jody Schaick, Mary Dinkins, Peter Smith, Lisa Smith, Dan Monroe, Jim Schaick, Rick Pepler and Mike Winter. We wouldn't be able to operate the pantry without your continued help.

Church Council

Church Council Meeting Highlights August 13, 2024

Meeting called to order by Leanne. Opening prayer by Pastor Andi.

President's Report: Blind Purchase Update – they are in but not perfect. They were cut incorrectly, so the installer will bring the correct ones when they come in. EAA parking - $21827 profit. Memorial & Endowment report sent out to council as FYI. Pizza Ranch Fundraiser on August 19. Discussed expiring council terms. Quilters asked to use the building on second Wednesday of the month and the council saw no problem with that. Leanne will provide a sidewalk update for the Lamplighter.

Secretary's Report: After minor corrections Minutes were accepted.

Treasurer's Report: Reviewed June financial reports. We had a negative flow of -$3,745.23 with a negative YTD of -$4,984.65. Alliant Energy stock was -$0.9 (1.15%) this month with a YTD of -$0.40 (0.78%). Majority of expenses for the month were Emp Pension & Andi's Health In, WPS – Gas & Electric, 2nd Qtr 2024 Fed & SS Payroll Taxes, Facts – Church website annual hosting, Accu-Com – Replace Alarm Panel. Reviewed July financial reports. E had a positive cashflow of $19556.97 with a positive YTD of $14,984.65. Treasurer's Report accepted as printed.

Pastor's Report: I was on vacation July 17-23. Zach Wolf filled in for me Thursday evening and Karen Darnick on Sunday morning. EAA Parking was July 22-28 and I think it went great. We really are learning more and more every year. I was also out of town July 31-August 3. Leanne Monroe and Mary Dinkins filed in for me Thursday evening. Mary was on vacation this past week and the music being recorded went OK. There are some issues with scratchiness that was raised by those using the hearing loop. It was turned up about as loud as we could have it and I thought it would have been good for it to be a little louder. I hope we can get it all worked out. Memorial Endowment meeting is August 20. I will be meeting with confirmation students and their families in the next few weeks. We have only 7th graders this year and the class should have 6 students.

Church Council Message

On behalf of Emmanuel's Church Council, I am writing to you our members, friends, and supporters of Emmanuel United Church of Christ. As most of you know by now, we have received the invoice for our sidewalk replacement from the city. The total amount due by November 1, 2024 is $12,590.94. Approximately $5,000 is still needed to pay this bill.

We as a Church Council have been working very hard with many fundraisers over the last year trying to help ease the burden of the amount needing to be raised to make this payment. Thank you to all who have helped with these efforts.

We are asking you now to prayerfully consider if you have not done so already, donating directly to the sidewalk fund. If everyone could contribute something, whatever you are able, it would help to lessen the amount we will have to take from other sources.

We are blessed to have a positive balance in our budget right now, but we all know how quickly that can change with an unexpected expense. Now is the time your help is needed with the expense to be paid soon.

We will continue to work together to provide opportunities for gathering funds that supplement what is received or falls short in general fund giving. Many opportunities exist to contribute to this our church via the "Wish List" as well as volunteer positions needed.

Thank you for considering where you can help and contribute to this our church Emmanuel.

Fresh Produce... If you happen to have an abundance of produce from your garden, bring it to church! We can hand it out in the food pantry. Food pantry distribution takes place on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday morning s. It would be a great treat for everyone to get fresh garden

Council Elections - The governing body of Emmanuel, the church council, is made up of 12 members. Each year about half of those council members are up for election. Typically, two executives (either President and Treasurer or Vie President and Secretary), two deacons and two trustees complete their term. This happens every single year. And every year we struggle to fill those vacancies. Please consider reaching out and letting the church office or any of our council members know if you are interested in learning more about what deacons, trustees and the executives do to make sure Emmanuel is ready to serve. The only way the church will thrive is if people are willing to give their time and talents to do the ministry set before them.

Please remember, if you have a prayer request you can enter it on our website, or call the church weekday morning.

Sunday morning is usually a busy time for Past Andi. It would help her to remember if you are having surgery, or a procedure, If you could please call the church office, 920.235.8340 or email the office at office@emmanueloshkosh.org and let Lori know so Pastor Andi can be with you and your family during this difficult time.
