Pastor Andi's Message

January 2026

I took my dog, Hugo, for a walk this morning. That isn't anything new as we go most mornings. We didn't go when the windchill was -20, but the rest of the days we do. Sundays I get up at 5:30 so we can get a walk in before church. The rest of the time I get up when I get up. No matter how early or late, Hugo is happily ready to go. In one part of the subdivision, individual houses do not have mailboxes. Instead, there are about 6 cluster mailboxes along the road. I don't know why just that part of the subdivision has cluster mailboxes while the rest of us have individual mailboxes at the end of our driveway—that decision is above my paygrade. Most days when I pass them, I can't help but think how inconvenient it must be to have them.

Today as I was nearing the end of my walk, I noticed a woman with a cane very carefully making her way to the cluster box nearest her house. She was moving very slowly as the roads were wet in some spots and a little icy in others. I asked if I could help, and she accepted. I took her stamp order and dropped it in the box. I offered to walk her back to her house--just for a little extra stability. Cane in one hand, the other arm tucked in mine, we made it back to her house. I found out she was 91 years old (she had just had a birthday), lived alone, and had taken both her garbage and recycling bins to the end of her driveway before heading to the mailbox. I told her to be careful and to have a great day; she wished me a Merry Christmas. It was a great start to the day.

I don't share this for a pat on the back—we all do kind things. I share this to remind you to keep eyes and ears and hearts open for those who might just need a steadying arm or compassionate ear. I have walked past so many hurting souls because I was too impatient, or self-absorbed, or just didn't want to offer help and be rejected. I wonder what differences we would make if we were just a little more open to the hurt and need around us.

2026 is upon us, friends. This year we will continue to do remarkable things, one small act at a time. I pray we move into this new year with more positivity; more hope, more joy and more faith; offering more grace, more mercy, and more love. Just as our Jesus has taught us to do! Amen.

Brrr! January is here, and so is snowflake season! Did you know that no two snowflakes are the same? God made each one special—and He made you special too! This month in Sunday School, we'll be learning that God created every child with care, love, and purpose. From our giggles to our talents, from our kindness to our curiosity—God made each of us just the way He wanted us to be.

Our Bible verse reminds us of this amazing truth:
“I praise You because I am fearfully and wonderfully made.”
Psalm 139:14

We'll talk about how God knows us, loves us, and delights in who we are. Just like snowflakes sparkle in the winter sky, each child shines in their own special way because God made them that way!

At Home Faith Fun:
Look at snowflakes (real or on paper!) and talk about how God made each one different. Then share one thing you love about how God made your child. End with a simple prayer thanking God for making them so special.

We're excited to start the new year celebrating God's wonderful creation—you! ❄️ ✨

Blessings to you,

The purpose of the Lay Visitation Team is to provide spiritual and pastoral care to those members of Emmanuel who are unable to attend services, such as the homebound, hospitalized, or grieving.

The Lay Visitation Team meets once a quarter following worship service on Sunday. If you know of any members that are unable to attend church service and would benefit from the care the team provides, please feel free to reach out to one of the Lay Visitation team members so we can ensure those requesting visits are attended to.

Connie Whittaker,
EUCC Lay Visitation Team Coordinator
